

Guidelines

Welcome to the Relevel Test. Below are a few guidelines that we recommend you to be mindful of and follow to ensure a smooth experience with the Relevel Tests

- Please ensure you are available at least 15 minutes before the start of each round. Showing up late to any round may result in disqualification
- Ensure that you have a good internet connection, a working camera and microphone
- Silence anything that could interfere with your conversations, including your phone and email notifications on your computers
- Make sure no one else is around when you are appearing for the Test
- Please dress up professionally. We recommend a formal shirt for the process
- It's easy to miss something important during an interview. We suggest you connect your computer to earphones or headphones to get clear sound
- The lighting in the room must be bright enough to be considered "daylight" quality. Overhead lighting is preferred
- Please ensure that your face is visible on camera
- We recommend keeping your answers brief and concise
- Please be informed that the rounds are proctored. You are not allowed to switch your screen, use your mobile phone or any other electronic gadgets
- If found guilty of malpractice, we may disqualify your scores in the test
- The entire test will be conducted in English only. Wherever applicable, we will expect your responses to be in English only as well
